How DNA bridges the gap:

Multi-Meeting Case Study

Who were the parents of Maria K. (Blume) Sanneman, who died in Steele County, Minnesota on 30 December 1904?

Direct & Indirect Evidence (F.A.N., Cemetery details and Timelines) paired with DNA evidence lead to the previously unknown and unstated parents of Maria K. (Blume) Sanneman

Case Study: Maria's Process

1. Review the known source material (identifying key events and locations):
    a. Census (Federal, MN State, MN Territory)
    b. Vital Records
    c. Immigration and Naturalizations
    d. Death (Register, Obituary, Cemetery, Probate)
    e. List of F.A.N. Club
2. Write this.
3. Create a Timeline of her life, as known:
    a. When and where
    b. Who is she interacting with? F.A.N.

May

Case Study: Maria's Process (part 2)

5. Work the DNA:
    a. Best Person to Test / Best Test Taker to Use?
    b. GGP Charts (DNA Reference Charts to Great Grand Parents)
        i. Create a Sanneman/Blume Chart. Identify BKM or Best Known Match in Sanneman/Blume
        ii. My Sanneman/Blume Cluster: The Shared Matches should contain matches to Heinrich Ludwig Sanneman's parents and Maria K. Blume's parents.
6. Write This.
7. Work the DNA:
    a. Hunt the Shared Matches for BLUMEs
    b. Reconcile Last Name Spellings: BLUME, BLUHM, BLOHM

May

June

Case Study: Maria's Process (part 3)

8. Research matches family trees
    a. Heinrich Abbe and his wife, Eliza Bluhm
    b. Heinrich Bluhm and his wife
    c. Franz Blohm and Catherine Nielandt, and their family
9. Compare Timelines between Maria and Eliza / Henry/ Franz & Catherine
10. Search for other Abbes & Blume/Bluhm/Blohms in DNA Matches
    a. Are these matches related?
    b. Can you connect these folks on paper?
11. Create a Blohm/Nielandt Chart for Franz Blohm and Catharina Dorothea Nielandt:
    a. Eliza who married Henry Abbe & their descendants
    b. Henry who married Margaret Beck & their descendants
    c. William who married Henrietta Rosenau & their records

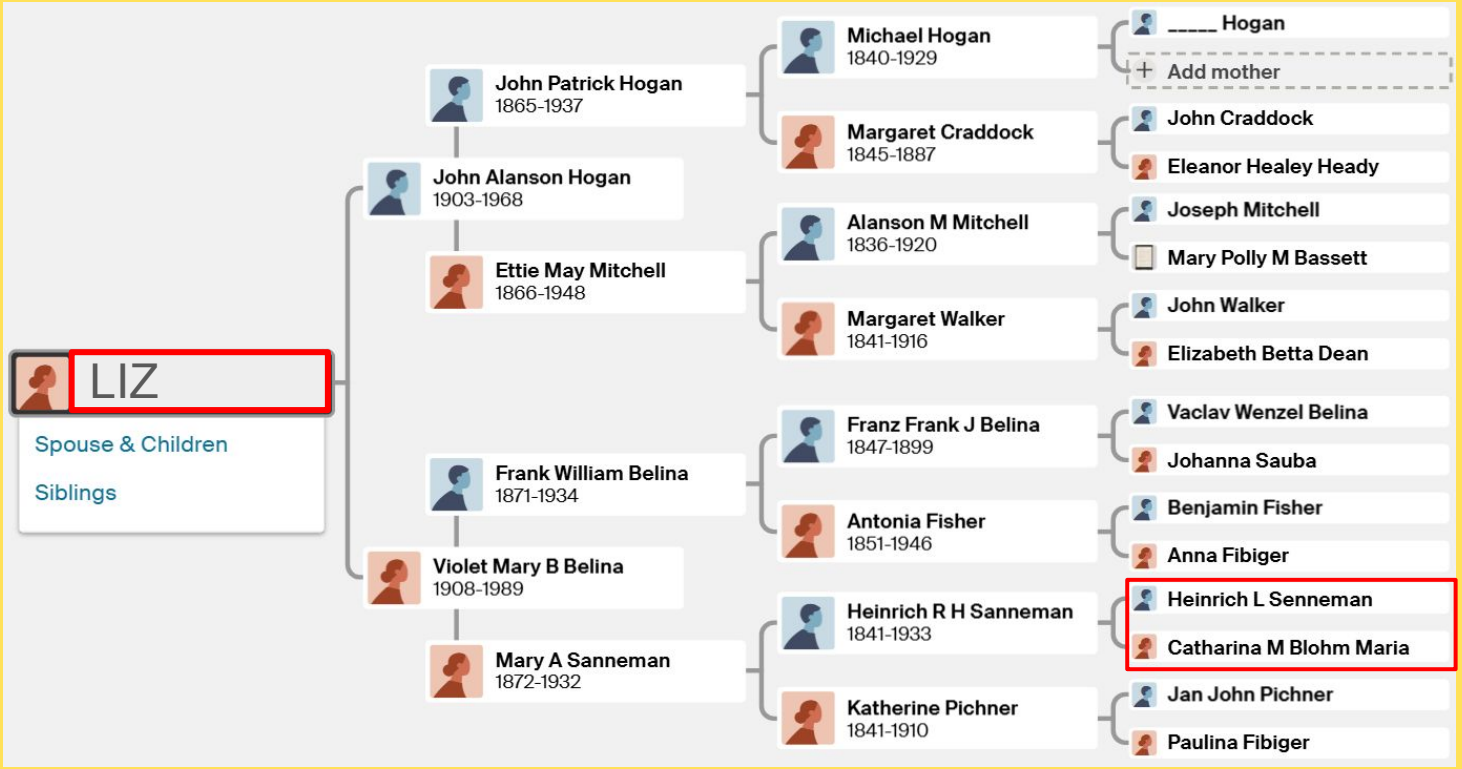

June

Case Study: Maria's Process (part 4)

12. Research Henry, Elizabeth and William
    a. William's probate files name his siblings (2 we didn't know about)
    b. Research 2 More Siblings
        i. Schmallfeldts - Probate
        ii. Luehrs - more DNA Matches
13. Find the Blohm/Nielandt family in Mecklenburg
14. Resolve Conflicts
    a. Locations: Mecklenburg v. Hannover
    b. First Names - UGH! What is it with Germans?
    c. One more Immigration record???
15. Write it up.

What about William Blohm?

- William married Paulina Henrietta Rosenau, 1863 in Steele County, Minnesota
- William died 12 May 1888 in Steele County.
  - His last will written 1884. Left his entire estate to wife.
  - William and Henrietta have no children.
  - Administrator = Ernest Sanneman (no relationship given, but NEPHEW)
  - So his probate records name:
    - Henrietta, widow
    - Henry Blohm, brother
    - Marie Sanneman , Elizabeth Abbe, Dorothea Schmallfeldt, Catherina Luehr, SISTERS!

This is the first record discovered that puts Maria Blume Sanneman in a family!

What about Dorothea Schmallfeldt and Catherine Luehr?

Sister Dorothea Schmallfeldt

- William's Probate records give no further information about Dorothea Schmallfeldt
  - No location or spouse's name
  - Searching Steele County between 1857-1895 - no Schmallfeldts
  - Lots of spelling variations of "Schmallfeldt" makes it hard to search
- Conduct a wide search for a marriage in Minnesota or Iowa
  - _____ Blohm/Blume/Bluhm
  - I did not use her first name, because GERMANS 1st Names are crazy.
  - _____ Schmallfeldt (wide spelling variations), didn't know his first name.

- Conduct a wide search for a marriage in Minnesota or Iowa
  - _____ Blohm/Blume/Bluhm
  - I did not use her first name, because GERMANS 1st Names are crazy.
  - _____ Schmallfeldt (wide spelling variations), didn't know his first name.
  - I find this:

Name	Doris Blum
Gender	Female
Marriage Date	25 Sep 1855
Marriage Place	Clayton, Iowa
Spouse	Christopher Schmallfeldt
FHL Film Number	1255482
Reference ID	bk1 pg91

Sister Doras Schmallfeldt

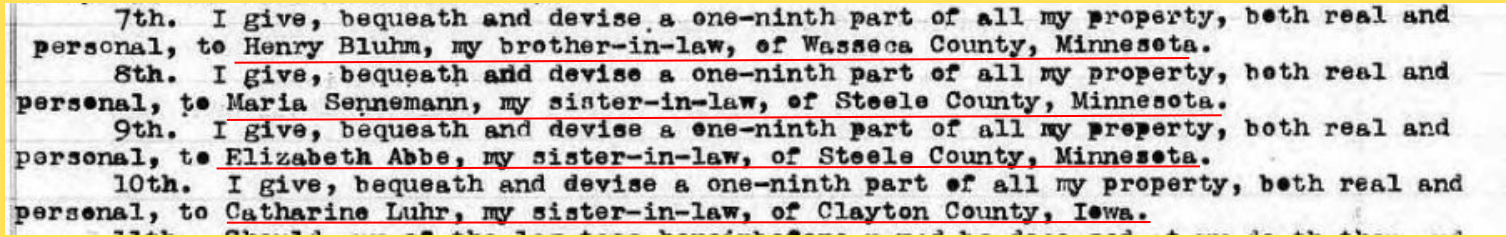

- 1870 US Federal Census, Farmersburg, Clayton County, IOWA

- Doras BLUM with spouse Christopher, mother Doras Blohm and lodger Henry Drinkern.
- This Henry Drinken's nephew married Maria Sanneman's daughter Minnie.
- Is this Doras Blohm, the same as Catherine Nielandt who married Franz Blohm?
- If so, where is Franz Blohm?
    - In 1870, he lived with son Henry (who married Margaret Beck) in Steele County
    - No Doras in that household
    - Aged parents separate and lived with different children???

Sister Doras Schmallfeldt

- She died 1893 in Farmersburg, Clayton County, Iowa, but left no will.
- Her husband, Christopher Schmallfeldt died on 22 December 1911 in Farmersburg.
- He wrote a will in 1903.
  - No living children
  - Divided his estate into 9 equal parts
  - 5 for his siblings
  - 4 for his wife's siblings:

Resolve CONFLICTS:

1. Gap between 1813 marriage and 1825 births
2. Sannemans and Luehrs from Hannover BUT Blohms from Mecklenburg
    a. How do they meet? Where do they marry?
    b. Not a lot of Hannover church records online
3. Catherine Luehr (of the probate records) OR Maria Luehr (of the DNA Matches)
4. Missing Records
    a. Immigration of the Luehrs
    b. Marriages of Sanneman/Blohm and Luehr/Blohm
    c. Baptisms of Sanneman children and Luehr children

Remaining Questions

There's still a gap in records:

- Don't have Maria's to Heinrich L. Sanneman or Catherine's to Heinrich Luehr (about 1840)
  - Both men from Hannover
- No Sanneman or Luehr grandchildren's baptisms in Germany
- No online records of Franz Heinrich Blohm's death or probate
- No online records of Catharina Dorothea Nielandt's death or probate

How DNA bridges the gap:

Summary of Information

- Neighbors : 1857 MN Territory Census
- Cemetery : Several are buried in the same cemetery
- Timeline : with repeated locations and time frames (Mecklenburg, Clayton County, Meriden)
- DNA Matches : to the Sanneman/Blume and Sanneman/Pichner clusters revealed 24 Matches to Franz Heinrich Blohm and Catharina Dorothea Nielandt through 3 independent lines of descent.
- Probate : William Blohm's probate record's name Maria Sanneman as his sister
- Probate : Christopher Schmallfeldt's Will names Maria Sanneman as a sister-in-law
- Passenger Lists: Family Groups traveling on the same ships to immigrate, possibly even the Luehr Family
- Correlation: Birth dates from gravemakers in Iowa and Minnesota, remarkably to baptism & confirmation records
- Resolved Conflict : "Clarified" First Name confusion
